

ENGR 103: INTRODUCTION TO PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

Incoming College of Engineering students at Purdue University in Indianapolis are highly encouraged to register for this introductory professional development course to build professional skills and prepare for work-integrated learning experiences including internships and co-ops.

COURSE OVERVIEW

1-credit career readiness topics for students to understand industry expectations

Transition resume & cover letter from high school to college and interview practice

Create a LinkedIn profile, elevator pitch and discover ways to search for opportunities

Access to networking with guest speakers and top employers as a freshman

Assigned undergraduate teaching assistants will mentor and support individual students needs during the course

COURSE REGISTRATION INFO

First year students will work with their academic advisor on requesting registration for ENGR 103: Intro to Professional Practice for Fall 2024.

Tuesday, 4:30pm - 5:20pm
ENGR 10301-026, CRN: 13945
Location: Innovation Hall 102

Wednesday, 4:30pm - 5:20 pm
ENGR 10301-027, CRN: 13993
Location: Innovation Hall 102

Jash Pola
Rising Sophomore in ECE & STARS

In Intro to Engineering Professional Development, I was able to develop confidence and skills that I could leverage during networking and career fairs to secure multiple professional opportunities.