FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS
GEARE is a Cost Neutral Program

- Pay $400 registration fee during internship rotations
- Receive varied compensation for domestic internship
- International internship will not pay as much as U.S. based internships. However, it should cover cost of living expense.
- OPP may award a Global Living Assistance Grant to help with costs

Study abroad students may qualify for:

- One $2,500 grant
- One $1,500 grant
FINDING INTERNSHIPS
They Are Out There!

GEARE Employers
- Companies are committed to providing both domestic and International Internship Opportunities
- American Axle & Manufacturing, Bendix, CEC Controls, Cummins, Daimler, Eaton, Faurecia, FCA, John Deere, Mercedes, McAfee, RA Jones, Rockwell Collins, Rhode & Schwarz, Rolls-Royce, Textron, Weiss NA, Whirlpool

Student Created Opportunities
- Students may search to find domestic and international opportunities with the same company

International Only Internships
- OPP is developing individual internship opportunities in Germany, France, Spain, Mexico, Ecuador, Peru, India, China, Japan, Italy, Nicaragua, and other places
In collaboration with its International University partners, Purdue will assist in helping students get the proper authorization to work in their host countries.

Purdue University partners will issue acceptance letters covering the dates of both the study abroad semester and the internship.

- The internship will be considered part of the academic program, which will allow students to work in most countries.

For students participating in internships outside of their study abroad country, Purdue will coordinate with a third party organization specializing in visa and work authorizations such as IAESTE or with a hosting university in the internship country.
The Office of Professional Practice can assist in connecting you with global companies.

GEARE Student Recruitment Event, Sept 9th, 2019

- Opportunities to connect via customized company visits
- Sending resumes to GEARE companies
