ENGR 103: INTRO TO PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE

Open to all first-year students in the College of Engineering as a professional development course to prepare for early career opportunities including internships, co-ops and skills training.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Connect with students, faculty and industry professionals

Transition your resume & cover letter from high school to college

Develop a LinkedIn profile, elevator pitch and your personal brand
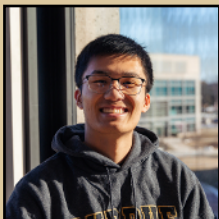

Network with guest speakers and top employers

Undergraduate teaching assistants will serve as mentors to provide feedback, share knowledge and help with your career readiness skills

REGISTER ON myPURDUE

WEDNESDAYS, 2:30pm - 3:20pm
CRN: 13945, LE 102

WEDNESDAYS, 4:30pm - 5:20pm
CRN: 13993, LE 102

David Chin
Rising Sophomore Biomedical Engineering

ENGR 103: Professional Development equipped me with the essential skills and confidence to effectively engage with industry professionals, sharpen my networking abilities, and clearly articulate my academic goals. This course was pivotal in helping me secure valuable opportunities and set the foundation for my engineering career.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY | Office of Professional Practice

opp.purdue.edu I oppindy@purdue.edu I @pupropractice